<sup>5</sup> you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

<sup>9</sup> But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. <sup>10</sup> Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy. ~ 1 Peter 2:5, 9-10

Greetings to you! Ready or not, September is here. We are looking forward to many great ministries starting up again this fall, from Confirmation, youth groups, Sunday school classes, Bible studies and much more to come.

How do you see yourself when it comes to ministry? Do you think that you have a ministry that God is calling you to participate or lead in or a ministry that you have discovered as your Christian calling?

Short story...While my family was on vacation this summer while we were visiting my sister in South Carolina, we went to my sister's NALC church. Something caught my eye right away in the bulletin on the list of worship leaders. First in the list was "Ministers: people of St. Peters."

The above passage from St. Peter reminds us of who Jesus is. In verses 1-4 St. Peter describes God's word as a life-giving milk that one craves and is good to taste. By verse 5, He moves to the imagery of Christ as a stone. The cornerstone of our faith. He is then the foundation which we can build our lives. We are then the living stones being built up as a spiritual house. We then understand how Christ is the light of the world and he calls us out of darkness into His light. Through this, he makes us His own, gives us a place as citizens of His kingdom, and empowers us to live as His royal priesthood. We are not alone but are part of His people, a holy nation. Now that same Savior calls us to tell others of His love.

Through the grace of God, we can then see what God has done in Jesus Christ and what God is doing in these Christians. Ultimately, we are precious in God's sight. Through eyes of faith we can understand verse 10 as key. This is foolishness to unbelievers because it seems as though the Christian believers are being rejected, are aliens and exiles, foolish and straying. Christians are chosen as Christ is the cornerstone of faith. God's people are, holy, blessed and royal.

Martin Luther wrote about what is now generally considered the doctrine of the priesthood of all believers. In Luther's writing, if you have faith in Christ and are a baptized Christian you share in the mutual priesthood. This is what the people of God, God's people are called to be. We are a royal priesthood, set apart.

This is also a key part of the NALC common confession:

CC5) The Priesthood of All Believers

We believe and confess that the Holy Spirit makes all who believe in Jesus Christ to be priests for service to others in Jesus' name, and that God desires to make use of the spiritual gifts he has given through the priesthood of all believers.

So now what? Can you see yourself with eyes of faith as a royal priest set apart to do ministry for Jesus? Do you see ministries that you want to share in?

We will continue to see where the Holy Spirit guides our congregation as we start a new year of many ministries.

What ministry can you participate in this fall? What ministry would you want to help lead? Where is Jesus calling you to live out your calling as the Ministers of First Lutheran Church?

In Christ,
Pastor Chuck

August 10, 2022 COUNCIL MEETING

(Please note that minutes are not approved until voted on by the council at the next meeting.)

The Church Council met on August 10, 2022, at 6:30 PM. Present were: Matt Gardner, Aaron Solomonson, Mac Beaudry, Pastor Mann, Julie Bentz, Jeff Schmidt, Sarah Kadrmas, and Janet Hanson. Absent were Melanie Beckman and Lee Kugler. Also present was Jeannette Rost.

The meeting was called to order.

Pastor led with devotions on church leadership and how do we spend our time as a church group as presented by Rev. Mark Vander Tuig. (Eph. 4:11-13)

Beaudry/Kadrmas to approve the minutes from June 15, 2022. Carried.

Solomonson gave the treasurer's report. The following balances are on hand: CD's: $150,000.00; Checking: $104,763.22; Building: $32,971.01; Cemetery: $617.40; Interest: $8,761.03; Music: $1,471.74; Parking Lot: $760.00; Worship: $2,703.44; Morgan Stanley: $11,992.40. Total Assets: $314,040.24. Schmidt/Bentz to approve the report for future audit and to pay all non-budgeted bills. Carried.

Pastors Report: Pastor presided over two graveside/funeral services. He has met with staff and members. Second Service open discussion will be on Sat. Aug. 13, Confirmation will start on Aug. 31 with a meeting and the first week in Sept. they will start with classes, audio upgrades have been completed.

Committee reports:

Education: Kadrmas reported the first day of Sunday school will be Sept. 11. She is working on getting teachers-but has most.

Property: Kugler wasn't here, but in his report he said the air conditioners in both the Pastor and Secretary's offices need to be replaced. He received a couple bids. A motion from Schmidt to have the two replaced was withdrawn and will be tabled for a future meeting. There is a hole outside that water collects in and needs to be filled in. Kugler will take care of this. Trees at the parsonage need to be trimmed.

Old Business:

We have $461.92 in Thrivent Choice Dollars. Work is still continuing on the Endowment.

Youth Director: Pastor Mann and Beaudry reported on this. The mutual ministry met with Melissa Rothe and discussed the position. They recommend the hiring of her. The board discussed the contract. Kadrmas/Bentz to approve the contract with Melissa Rothe for Coordinator of Student Ministries with the changes that were discussed. At this time Hanson asked to abstain from voting because of conflict of interest. Kadrmas/Solomonson approved to allow Hanson to abstain from voting. Carried. The motion to hire Rothe was voted on and carried.

In the parsonage basement bathroom, only the painting needs to be finished.

The property use policy was tabled.

The annual gathering and convention for the LCMC is Oct. 2-5. Early bird sign up is until Aug. 15.

New Business:

The Women of the church asked the Council for help with the annual fall cleaning of the church. They received a bid from Arrow Service team for a general clean and carpet cleaning. After discussion, it was decided we will try an all member clean-up which Schmidt and Kadrmas will head up.

We received a request from Candisc to help with a meal when they come through Washburn. But because the date is this coming week-end, the board decided there wasn't enough time to prepare for it.

The Church received a letter from Camp of the Cross telling us we had a credit of $1,195.00 because they had to close down for a while because of COVID. They are wondering if we want to donate some (since there still were expenses to cover) or receive a check for this amount. This was tabled for next month.

There were no transfers in or out.

The next meeting will be on Sept. 15 at 6:30 PM.

Bentz/Schmidt to adjourn. Carried.

We ended with the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted by:
Janet Hanson
Church Council Secretary

20 MISSION 22 CONVOCATION

Highlights from the 2022 NALC Mission Convocation

Hosted by the North American Lutheran Seminary
August 5, 2022

The 2022 Mission Convocation has ended after more than 400 delegates and visitors gathered online to celebrate another year of ministry and mission in the North American Lutheran Church (NALC).

The biggest highlight came this year in the form of the 2022 NALC Ministry Report video, which celebrated the growth of the NALC in a little over a decade, while also reporting on its work in the past year and sharing where it is headed in the next season. The full video, located online, touched on:

- Congregations and pastors which have recently joined the NALC;
- New mission starts as well as local, domestic, and global mission strategies;
- Newly appointed area assistants to the bishop and progress on the centralized office in the Dallas/Ft. Worth, Texas area;
- The growing North American Lutheran Seminary (NALS) network of schools, faculty transitions, and a special call for congregations to raise up new ministry leaders;
- Expanding candidacy pathways, including the initiation of the NALC diaconate and "Ordination Under Special Circumstances" (OUSC), as well as pastoral care opportunities in small congregations;
- "Fresh Eyes for Mission" renewal summits, Renewal and Aging Ministry online courses, and NALC Life-to-Life Discipleship resources;
- Youth and Family Ministry transitions;
- Ongoing Disaster Response efforts;
- Continued Communication Ministry growth in mission districts;
- Launch of the Today, Tomorrow & Forever initiative;
- And snapshots of many other NALC ministries.

The NALC officially launched the Today, Tomorrow & Forever initiative of its 2020 Vision. This is the financial component to the NALC strategic plan that will provide the resources needed to turn this God-given Vision into a reality. Through this initiative, the NALC is asking pastors, congregations, mission districts, and individuals throughout the church to step out in faith and to help it to raise $5 million above and beyond what it is already expecting to receive through regular giving over the next three years. This increased level of funding will not only strengthen the financial foundation of the church but will also enable a number of ministry and mission commitments we are making.

Elections: Mr. Jerry Roehr of Winnipeg, Manitoba, and the Rev. Theresa Jacobson of Thornville, Ohio, were elected to three-year terms on the Executive Council. The Rev. Dr. George Black of Foresthill, California, and the Rev. Ronald Hoyum of Poulso, Washington, were elected to three-year terms on the Court of Adjudication. Mrs. Lynnae Douglas of Export, Pennsylvania, the Rev. Dr. Stephane M. Kalonji of Rosenberg, Texas, and Mr. Richard Jansak of Hendersonville, North Carolina, were elected to five-year terms on the Executive Council.

A devotion on the Mission Convocation theme, "A Great Cloud of Witnesses" (Hebrews 12:1-3) was delivered by Dr. David Luy, the new Associate Professor of Systematic Theology at the NALS. Dr. Luy's devotion highlighted the radical path to faithfulness, a call to endurance and perseverance, and a witness that points beyond what we see to what is real.

The 2023 budget was approved. The Mission Convocation approved a $3.56 million budget for the ministry of the NALC. The 2023 unified budget combines the operating budget with the budgets of the church's designated funds – the Theological Education Fund (which includes the North American Lutheran Seminary), Great Commission Fund and Disaster Response Fund.

Per the NALC Constitution, the Executive Council also gave a report for the past year.

Documents, photos and videos from the 2022 Mission Convocation will be posted online at thenalc.org.

Raising Hope Ministry

Kellie Sheldon

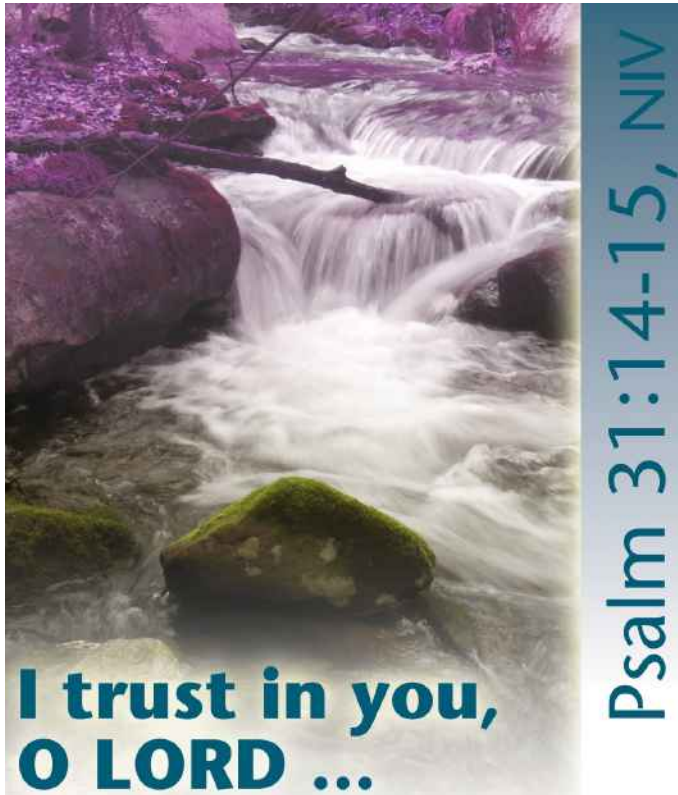

"But I trust in you, O Lord; I say, 'you are my God'.
My times are in your hand;"
Psalm 31:14-15

August carries a heaviness with it as it marks the passage of another summer. It also comes with the beginning of a new season. This always brings me a sense of hope as everything seems to reveal its final beauty for the year. Harvest dust is in the air and school busses are running again.

August holds a new meaning for me and my family. This year we celebrated 1 year of our son Isaac being in heaven. August holds the first time and the last time we got to hold our baby boy. It marks the end of one season of our lives and the beginning of another. A pivotal chapter in our story.

It is my hope that if you are enduring a difficult season you will join me at our next group gathering on Monday September 12 at 6:00 pm.

We will be making bracelets again in October! Any bead donations are appreciated! ☺

"GODS AT WAR"

Bible Study Begins September 11 8:30 AM

All Christians want to identify and eradicate their sin. We struggle and battle, but we make little progress. What if we've been missing the point? What if all sin has a common root; a core issue that we're failing to address?

In this 6-part video series, bestselling author and Pastor Kyle Idleman reveals the true source of your sins - idolatry. While there aren't many "graven images" in our world today, there are still countless gods viciously at war for the throne of your heart.

Through five compelling testimonies, learn to overcome the gods of love, money, pleasure, power and ultimately yourself. These stories will help you recognize misplaced worship in your own life and point the way to victory.

Kelley is the former pastor of Alive Christian Fellowship in Kenmare ND. Besides pastoring, Kelley has been a worship leader in many churches over the last 50 years. She loves to share her heart in song and word, either from a pulpit or on paper in her sometimes weekly articles she writes for the Kenmare News, or on her blog, www.kelleyscamera.blogspot.com

She spent 22 years homeschooling her three wonderful children. She now has added two daughter-in-laws and three grand children to her heart.

Her husband Todd moved to heaven in 2013, after a 12 year struggle with a TBI and dementia. In 2021 Kelley survived a brain tumor surgery at the Mayo. Months of rehab and recovery followed, learning to walk again, and do other daily functions. Her miraculous recovery has surprised even the doctors, and continues to gain strength for the new journey in her life.

YIKES!! SUMMER IS OVER, OR AT LEAST ALMOST OVER. The kids are in school, the flowers are looking tough, gardens and yards have a new appearance. We now put on the jackets that hung all summer untouched. Ok, I am not a big fan of fall. But at First Lutheran everything is busy. Sunday School starts and the Confirmation Program rolls out. This fall we hope to get a new service ministry started. This service is to provide for those who work on Sunday or prefer a smaller group. Each one of these have a big ask for help. Be prayerful and ask yourself, what could I do. We will not ask for hours of service, but small tasks you will enjoy and take pride in.

July was busy for the Ladies. Things they did were:

- ⇒ Served beans at the Bluegrass goes Pink Concert
- ⇒ Attended both plays at Sleepy Hollow
- ⇒ Had a potluck picnic at Judy Beaudry's.

WORSHIP REPORT

Jeff Schmidt - 701-202-1211

Scripture Readers

Hello to you all. Save this memo!! Below is a list of past readers and communion assistants. We will need updated contact information you prefer to have placed on a log sheet. Home phone, cell phone, or email are all acceptable forms of contact. If you do not provide an update, we will assume your previous contact is your current contact. Each of the people on the list will have a call sheet placed in their mailbox. If you cannot fulfill the appointment, please call someone from the groups to swap dates. These groups will rotate each year accordingly. If you are not on the list and would like to be, we'll gladly welcome you! The more, the merrier!

When a scheduled swap is made and it is one or more months out, contact Jeff or Jeannette to insure the newsletter and bulletin are accurate. DO NOT call about swap until the month prior to service date. I am always willing to fill in when in a difficult position, as are a host of others on this list. A few lucky folks are doubled up throughout the course of the year, so all in all, I'd say that is a success. Variety is good!! Thanks so much for the awesome service you've provided so far and will continue to do for First Lutheran Church.

If you alone are positioned on a first or third Sunday, both duties are assigned to you.
R = Reader; C = Communion Assistant

CHRISTIAN SYMBOL

POMEGRANATE - Because the pomegranate has an abundance of seeds, the fruit is used to represent hope and future life. It also symbolizes the many believers who are individual members of the universal Christian Church.

LABOR DAY LAUGHS

Take a break and enjoy this work-related humor!

- My first job was in an orange juice factory. I got canned because I couldn't concentrate.
- When I couldn't hack it as a lumberjack, I got the ax.
- I wasn't suited to being a tailor.
- Working in the muffler factory was to exhausting.
- I was a banker ... until I lost interest.
- I realized there was no future in being a historian.

- Any way I sliced it, I couldn't cut the mustard at the deli.
- I studied to become a doctor but had no patients.
- My job at the coffee shop was always the same old grind.
- When I worked as a plumber, the tasks were to draining.
- I was hired at a gym but wasn't fit for the job.
- Finally, I got a job at a bakery; I kneaded dough!

Always Room in God's Kingdom

Jesus told a parable about a man who invited his friends and neighbors to a banquet, but they declined. So he told his servants to go find anyone who was hungry or lonely or in need. Still there was room. "Go out to the roads and country lanes and compel them to come in," the host said, "so that my house will be full" (Luke 14:34, NIV).

In Searching for Sunday, Rachel Held Evans

retells this story and writes: "This is what God's kingdom is like: a bunch of outcasts and oddballs gathered at a table, not because they are rich or worthy or good, but because they are hungry, because they said yes. And there's always room for more.

We're all "outcasts and oddballs" in one way or another! May we know that God warmly invites us to his banquet - for no reason but that we're hungry.
